DCHR Center for Learning & Development

The DC Department of Human Resources (DCHR) provides human resource management services that strengthen individual and organizational performance and enable the District government to attract, develop and retain a well-qualified, diverse workforce.

The DCHR Center for Learning & Development (CLD) coordinates training programs and activities for District government agencies and employees, including senior executives, middle managers, supervisors, and front line employees. CDL provides career assistance, resource centers, and specific agency training needs in partnership with universities, vendors, and other local training institutions.
